Since your Question can come at any time of the day between 8am - 8pm local time, be ready by 8am, or better yet, well before & so that you can relax. Be dressed, made up, hair done with time to get calm and centered.

Since you only have 60 seconds to prepare before recording begins, improve your Spon Q video quality by setting up a mini-recording space at home/work (or wherever you are likely to Answer from).

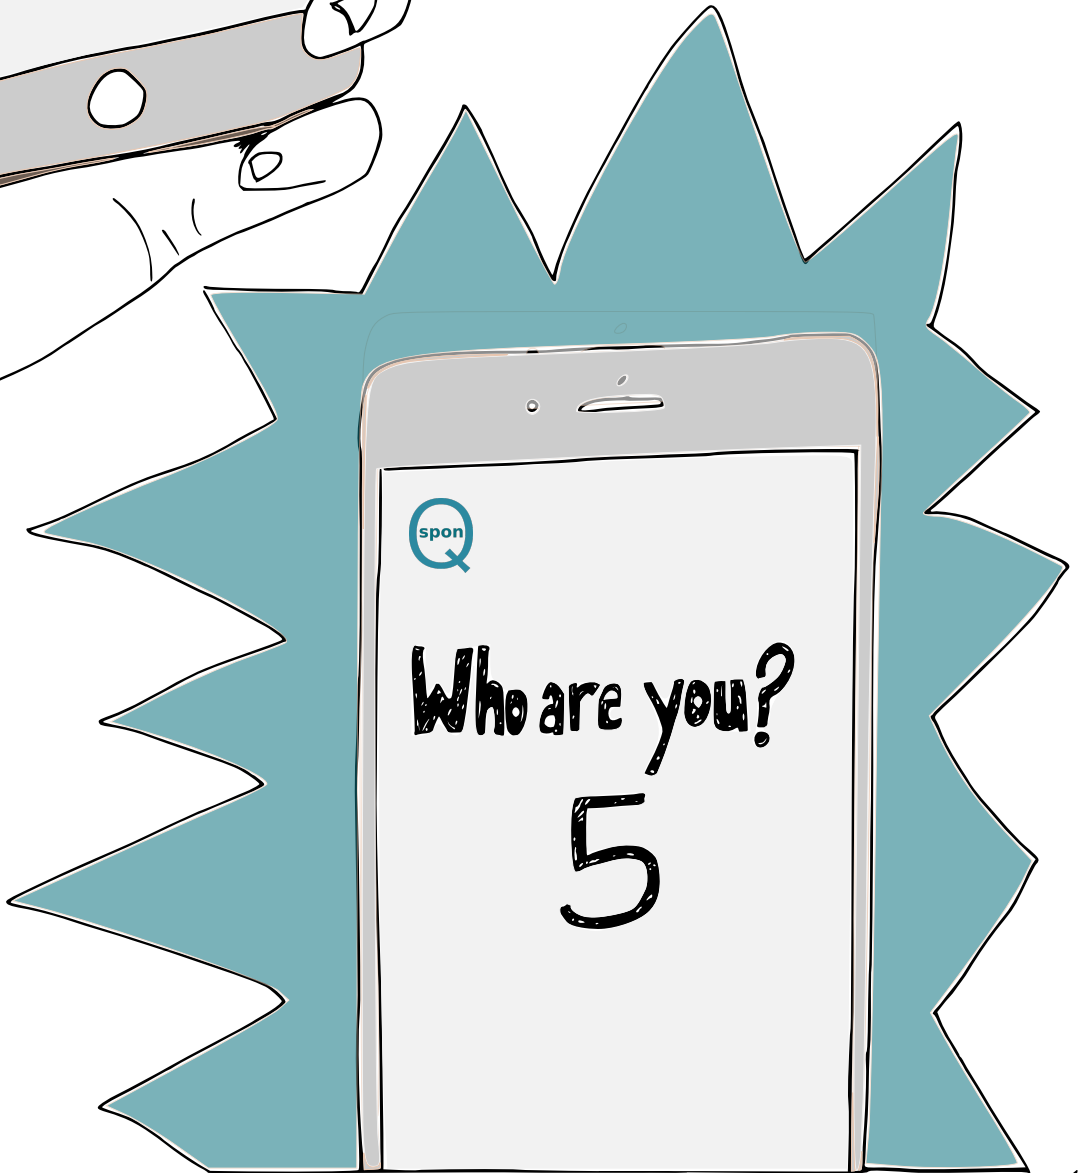

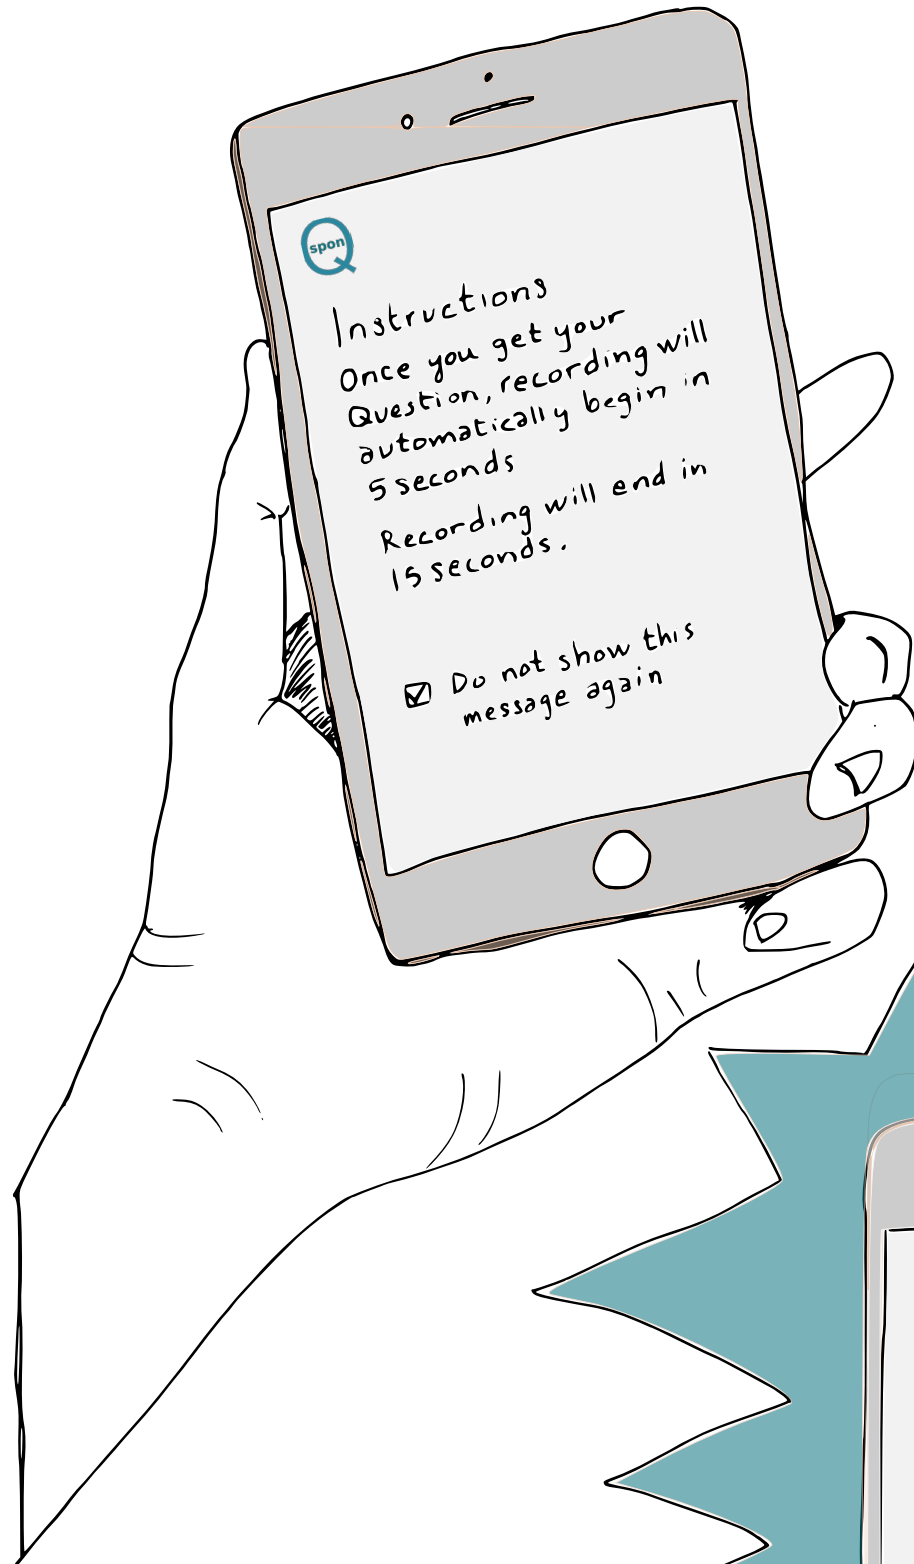

Set-up suggestions: lighting, background, phone mount and microphone.

There are full threads here in the Forum on each of these for tips and ideas.

WTF? How should I answer?

Like, what do I do for work? Be more interesting!

Interests? Activities? Sounds like a dating profile.

UGH! This is an IMPOSSIBLE question!

"I think therefore I am"? You gotta be kidding!

Uhhhh... ?!

Like in a metaphysical sense? I am a soul in physical form, oh puh-lease!

Be witty, clever, funny!

It's a question from Philosophy lol. Ugh, that smug look on the Prof's face...

Like what do I stand for? What do I stand for?

WHO decided this was a Good question? They should be fired.

who am I?

I'm dead. Screwed.
